Will Occupy the Building When Leases Expire.

North Main street has been purchased by

Singer & Donnell, the retail furniture just across from the property purchased. The building is one of the finest brick and stone structures on Main street and is very suitably adapted for the furniture business. The price paid by the new owners is between $7,000 and $8,000. The firm will not move from their present location until some time next full as they have a lease of the two large warerooms where they are located now and several of the tenaute in the Morris block also have leaves which will not expire until full or later. Singer & Donnell's business haz been one of the most progressive in the furniture line in the city, and from a small business started some few years ago, the firm has grown to be among the largest in Wichita. Less than one year ago they were pressed for more room and leased an adjoining the street, and since that time they have orain found themselves in the same olight of real estate that would enable them to locate permanently where plenty of floor egarota subject , smoot works but every
